(Brockton, MA- July 21, 2010) Fuller Craft Museum, New England's home for contemporary craft presents The New Different Lines: Drawings By Craft Artists, from July 31, 2010—Feb. 27, 2011.

Known best for their work in ceramics, glass, jewelry, wood, or textiles, craft artists are consummate creators of work in other media. This exhibition explores the prints and drawings of well respected craft artists and presents to the public an unseen side of these artists' creative abilities. Artists in the exhibition include Vivian Beer, Dale Chihuly, Dan Dailey, Steve Ford and David Forlano, Lissa Hunter, Sergei Isupov, Judy Kensley McKie, Norma Minkowitz, Jon Eric Riis, and Tommy Simpson. (Ford and Forlano, Isupov, Beer, Dailey and McKie all have work in the Museum's permanent collection.)
